

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 5, 1997 LB 128

have you with us. Is it warmer here than it is there? Ah, thank you. Next speaker, Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Madam...Mr. President. We have had a change in the Chair.

SENATOR COORDSEN: That's a common mistake. It is the hair style, Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I believe the Clerk has a motion that I've filed and perhaps we can move to that at this time, if that's appropriate.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Mr. Clerk. I believe it is coming along here.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you.

SENATOR COORDSEN: And do you have a little story, a little theatric something?

SENATOR LANDIS: No.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Mr. Clerk, motion.

CLERK: Senator Landis would move to amend, Mr. President. Senator, you have to go with me on this.

SENATOR LANDIS: Right.

CLERK: (Read FA15 as found on page 519 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR LANDIS: Yes, that's right. Reinstating the stricken language on page 5. Let me explain to the body what it is. Senator Abboud and I have just been putting our heads together to work out what is not a substantive problem with the bill, it is a process problem. And isn't it amazing how often we get into trouble on process as opposed to substance. The amendment takes out a little change of the IME, the independent medical examiner, the doctor that's not from the plaintiff and not from the defendant, the doctor who is a neutral in the workers' comp
